Citizens Advice Dudley & Wolverhampton is a charity that offers free, impartial and independent advice to over 15,000 people per year, resolving over 43,000 advice issues to diverse communities many of whom often have complex support needs and/or complex casework issues.

We have been successful in a Dudley Borough wide tender to deliver on a new and exciting service called Dudley Empowerment Partnership. This service is made up of new services within Citizens Advice as well as working as lead provider with organisations to deliver non advice services such as children's and adult advocacy, direct payments and community health and wellbeing.

We are excited that we have in post a new Wellbeing and Inclusion co-ordinator to develop our wellbeing services focusing on improving the health outcomes of communities across Dudley Borough by improving physical and mental wellbeing, tackling loneliness and isolation and working with the Minority and Ethnic communities to tackle health inequalities.

Therefore, this role will work with our health and wellbeing co-ordinator and our Head of health, wellbeing and Inclusion, overseen by the Director of Dudley Empowerment Partnership, to develop community based services and programmes to address the health priorities of the Borough, in partnership with Dudley Council, Public Health and other key statutory and non-statutory health commissioners and the Voluntary Sector.

Role purpose:

The post holder will need to:

- Have experience of working within the field of health and wellbeing within voluntary, statutory or public sector;
- Be comfortable speaking to members of the public on a 1:1 and in group settings;
- Have a good knowledge of how to map community services and deliver person centre services to diverse communities;
- Alongside our Head of health, wellbeing and inclusion, be able to lead on community based work to identify, develop and implement new pilots/initiatives;
- Have the skills to work with and communicate with paid staff, volunteers and members of the public.

Closing Date: Midday, Friday 24th June 2022
